Am Weihnachtsbaum (On The Christmas Tree)

Arnold Harris has written a sweet and gentle rendering of this beloved traditional German Weihnachtslied (Christmas carol).

Translation by Keith Lewinstein

The lights on the Christmas tree burn,
How festively they glow, lovely and gentle.
As if to say: "See in me a quiet picture of faithful hope."

The children stand with bright looks.
The eyes laugh, as does the heart.
O happy, blessed joy!
The old look in a heavenly direction.

Two angels came in.
No eye saw them coming.
They go to the Christmas tree and pray.
And then turn around and leave.

No ear heard their speech.
Invisible to everyone they left as they had come.
But God's blessing remains.
