“The Fly”

“The Fly”, a poem from the famous English romantic poet William Blake’s (1757-1827) “Songs of Experience” focuses our thoughts on the life of a little common fly. Blake muses for example how “my thoughtless hand” has “brushed away” the fly’s summer play. Arnold Harris has mirrored the text in his acapella SATB setting with a thoughtful section juxtaposed with a lively, dance like section accompanying Blake’s awareness that the fly, like a person, dances and drinks and sings. Changes of key and meter give extra life to this unaccompanied setting.
